

Breve Biografía

El Dr. Marwin Gutiérrez Riveros es egresado de la facultad de medicina la Universidad Privada del Valle (Cochabamba - Bolivia). Realizo su formación académica en la especialidad de Reumatología y ecografía aplicada a las enfermedades reumatológicas en el centro de alta formación de la Università Politecnica delle Marche (Ancona - Italia).

Actualmente es Reumatólogo de planta y ejerce la cátedra de Reumatología en el Departamento de Ciencias Clínicas y Moleculares del Hospital "Carlo Urbani" de la "Università Politecnica delle Marche" (Ancona, Italia). Es también profesor titular de la Escuela Italiana de Ecografía en Reumatología y "faculty member" del Grupo Europeo de Estudio Ecográfico en Reumatología OMERACT/EULAR.

El Dr. Gutiérrez ha sido conferencista en múltiples seminarios, forums y congresos de carácter nacional e internacional en el área de la reumatología; es autor/co-autor de textos científicos en reumatología así como de numerosos artículos científicos publicados en revistas nacionales e internacionales. Fue además acreedor de premios otorgados por la Sociedad Italiana de Reumatología y la Liga Europea de Jóvenes Reumatólogos Contra el Reumatismo (EULAR).

Ejerce el rol de consultor y revisor de diferentes revistas de índole reumatológico como: Annals of the Rheumatic Diseases, Rheumatology, Arthritis & Rheumatism, Rheumatology International, International Journal of Rheumatology, Clinical and Experimental Rheumatology, Clinical Rheumatology y Journal of Rheumatology.

Las áreas de investigación del Dr. Gutiérrez actualmente están concentradas en la detección precoz, monitoreo del tratamiento y evolución mediante ecografía de la artritis reumatoidea, espondiloartropatías (especial interés en artritis psoriasica), artropatías microcristalinas y fibrosis pulmonar en esclerosis sistémica.
